4) The general file relates to Conveyance allowances being fixed uniformly to all Officers of the Food Department depending on their Status and the mode of Conveyance to be maintained by them. It has been referred again to the D-F-S to furnish further Considered Proposals.

42) In the meantime, when the general question has been under Correspondence, the questions about the C.A. of several Officers have been Considered and disposed of. The Case in question of the grant of a Conveyance allowance to the Rationing Officer, Davangere town, is on all fours with the Cases of (1) the Food Asst to the Dy. Comnr, Shimoga, (2) the Special Amildar in Charge of Depots working as Asst to ADFS (Depots), Bangalore, (3) the Transport Officer, Bangalore and (4) the Asst Rationing Officers of circles in Bangalore City who have all been granted a C.A. of Rs 30/- p.m. in the meantime.

43) This Case has remained undisposed of here since October 1945 though on several such Cases orders have been passed and Communicated in the interval. Further, the R.O. of Davangere who was only having an Amildar's Status then has in the meantime been promoted as an Asst. Commissioner. In the circumstances, if approved this file may be referred unofficially to the D.F.S. to send up fresh proposals regarding the Conveyance allowance to be sanctioned to him (1) for the period he was a R.O. holding the Status of an Amildar (2) for the period he has been holding the Status of an Assistant Comnr and the Conditions under which
